Reason of the Case In defamatory words brought by John Black against John Black & Mary his wife it is ordered till the next Court. and for as much as it appeared that Mary to be of a violent spirit & given to ill language & that the said Black hath used contumacious language & violently hath behaved himself towards the Court it is Ordered that the said Black and his wife stand committed to the prison of custody until they find surety for the peace and good behaviour and appearance at the next Court.

The Deposition of Peter Symons aged about 31 years. That at the said Court going down to the lower end of the Island to lay out his land marks directed me to go along the same. So it done, and putting up of the land marks, John Black did remove them as fast as they were set up and said they could not stand there, so would pull them up. Whereupon I said to Black's wife beware what you doo lest you bring a strapado on your back, whereupon she so violently and rudely called the said John Black, whoop & pippy and uttered the words sayd not. Peter B. Symons.
