Charles Cary Com. 3rd of February 1672

In the Court of the Hon^{ble} Judges of the Court of Common Pleas for the County of Middlesex, at the Court House in the City of London, on the 14th day of June 1841, before the Hon^{ble} Judges of the Court of Common Pleas, the following case was heard and decided:—
The Plaintiff, James M. Smith, vs. The Defendant, John Doe.
The Plaintiff claims that the Defendant is liable to him for the sum of £100, being the amount of a bill of exchange drawn by the Plaintiff on the Defendant, and payable to the order of the Plaintiff, which bill was duly presented to the Defendant, and the Defendant refused to pay the same.
The Defendant denies the Plaintiff's claim, and alleges that the bill was not drawn by the Plaintiff, and that the Defendant is not liable to pay the same.
The Court, after hearing the evidence, found in favor of the Plaintiff, and ordered judgment for the sum of £100, with costs.
