

In the name of God Amen the 23rd Day of October in the year of our one thousand seven hundred & eighty three I being of the County of Chester being in perfect mind & memory but calling to mind the mortality of my Body, knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die to make & appoint this my last Will & Testament in the manner as follows

I do give & bequeath to my Sister Phebe Cobb my tract of Land wherein I now live during her natural life, after her death then the said tract of Land is given to my brother Samuel Cobb & to his Heirs forever

I do give & bequeath to my Sister Mary Portinon my Negro's Phillis named Jack to her & the Heirs of her body forever provided that David Portinon gives up the allony to my Estate that I owe him on his Wifes account

I leave the whole of ^{the} my rest of my Estate that I have not mentioned to be sold & all my just debts to be paid out of the amount thereof & the Balance to be equally divided Chesterfield County Wills 1774 to 1963 www.virginiapioneers.net

to my Estate that I owe him on his Wife's account

I leave the whole of ^{the} my rest of my Estate that I have not mentioned to be sold & all my just debts to be paid out of the amount thereof & the Balance to be equally divided between my three sisters Elizabeth South Hannah Marshall & Rebecca Cobb

And at the last of all I constitute & appoint my two Neighbours King Graves John Pory to ^{be} my sole Executors of this my last Will & Testament In Witnesses whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this Day & year above written

Signified & acknowledged by the said Ambrose Cobb to his last Will & Testament in presence of

Ambrose Cobb

John I Pory

John Fourquar
King Graves

In the name of God amen Joseph Watkins of the County of Chesterfield