

I do give my whole Estate real & personal of every kind to my dear & well beloved Wife Elizabeth Withers my Friend John Price of Annetta William Fannie William George Markham & my Son Thomas but he not as yet arrived at the age of twenty one To hold to them & their Heirs forever in trust for the maintenance & education of my Wife & Children giving them by these presents full power to sell if they judge it necessary all or any part thereof & to make conveyances to the Purchasers in full compliance with power also to make purchases with the Money arising from such sale for the use of my Wife & Family & to make Division of my Estate among my said Wife & Children at any time at any time when they shall think it convenient to do so and finally to do every thing with regard to the said Estate in as full & ample manner as I could myself while living & I do appoint the said Trustees guardians of my Children & Executors of this my time at any time when they shall think it convenient to do so and finally to do thing with regard to the said Estate in as full & ample manner as I could myself while living & I do appoint the said Trustees guardians of my children & executors of this my last Will & Testament begging of the Friendships which I am sure they have formed my Family that they will not shrink from the business of the Office I request them to act in In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand & seal this 9th Day of July 1788

Signed & sealed & declared to be his last Will in presence of ...

Benn. Watkins

George Robertson

James E. Dorman

Thomas Burton

Charles E. Burton

See Will Book page 26