

Francis, In the name of God amen I Robert Francis of Chesterfield Will & County in the province of Virginia but late of the City of Philadelphia being in a low & weak condition but in perfect sense & make this my last Will & Testament Wherein I desire to be decently buried & my Funeral expences paid I resign myself cheerfully to the Almighty God praying his protection

I therefore I give & bequeath unto my Son James Francis five hundreds pounds Money of Virginia

Item I give & bequeath unto my beloved Wife Margaret Francis the remainder of my whole Estate real & personal to her sole use to be Done with as she pleases

I constitute & appoint Alexander Fierle my Executor & sole of the

his protection

I give & bequeath unto my Son James Francis five hundred lingo tenant Money of Virginia

I give & bequeath unto my beloved Wife Margaret Francis the remainance of my whole Estate real & personal to her sole use to be Done with as she pleases

I constitute & appoint Alexander Francis my lawful attorney of the my last Will & Testament to do any all former ones I have made this to be my last Will & Testament. In Witness whereof I have

I hereunto set my hand & affix my seal this twelfth Day of December Anno Dom. 1776

Signed sealed & delivered pronounced & declared by James Francis for his last Will & Testament in the presence of the subscribers

Robert Francis

James Blaylock

John Gilson

Christopher Brooks

Philip Simmons

James

In the name of God amen I John Rowlett of Leno

Will I lawful bounty do make & appoint this my last Will &

Testament in manner & form following

First my Will is all my Just Debt & Funeral expenses be paid first

Item I give my Son, Rowlett my tract of Leno, Tenn. by the name of "Wentworth" it being the place he now lives at & his

There forever unto four Negroes named Mingo, Billy, Jane