Will } of Broomfield in the County of Culpeper is laid upon the Bed Translated } of a languishing Body, & for the reason of his Sharp disease suspects to leave this world. he hath sended for me, because no body being at hand who could write ^{English that I might write} & set down his last Will & Testament.

Whereby he did give me to understand that it is his Will the Tract of Land in his Possession containing about two hundred & seventy Acres of Land between his three sons namely, John, Adam, & Michael shall be equally divided of which the Eldest John shall begin with his Share at the of Margaret late Conrad Slaughters Wife, next to that the Second Son Adam shall take his Share,

The Third Michael shall have the Plantation, yet his Mother Mary Incider shall have the priority the enjoyment & their Maintenance from it, Also the use of the whole Estate & other things during her Life, Further the said John Incider will that his two ^{Culpeper County, Virginia Wills 1742} Sons John & Adam pay each for their share
