The land of the above property taken by the Western Land Company of the Province of the survey of said was examined by me and found to be right

Wm. W. Morrison Esq.

Sir

Cumberland Sept. 22nd 1801

I was at your office I find Samuel Scott Merchant at Baxa has been omitted in my return of the Merchants Licenses, owing to his having at thought of discontinuing that line of business, but his mind having altered have paid fifteen dollars to our Sheriff, which you will be pleased to add to the list which I have left in your office, the amount of the Merchants Licenses will then appear to be 343 dollars & forty nine cents

I am Sir great esteem yr. obt. servt
