I William Bradley of the County of Cumberland do hereby make my last will and testament in manner and form following That is to say first I desire that all my debts be paid. Secondly I give to my beloved wife Elizabeth for and during the term of her natural life, all the tract of land whereon I live my household & kitchen furniture my Books my stock of every description & plantation utensils together with one half of my negroes of every description, also the half of all the debts due me my money on hand and the proceeds of my crop on hand, Thirdly It is my desire that the remaining half of my negroes be hired out annually under the direction of my exors; and be the remaining half of the debts due to me my money on hand and the proceeds of my crop on hand be loaned in safe hand or laid out in bank stock or other safe and valuable stock at the direction of my exors, out of the proceeds of which here and interest my children are to be supported, and well instructed in the English language and such of the sciences as may be deemed proper and necessary by my exors Fourthly it is my desire that each of my male children as he shall come to the age of twenty one years and each of my daughters as she shall come to the age of twenty one or marry, shall take an equal proportion of the said half of my negroes and money and of any surplus which may be left after defraying the expenses before mentioned to them and their heirs forever Fifthly my wife shall be at liberty at any time she thinks it advisable, to sell the tract of land whereon I live and lay out the proceeds in the purchase of any other lands she may think more likely to conduce to the comfort and advantage of herself & my children Sixthly after the death of my wife it is my will and desire that all my lands be sold on such credit as my exors may think most advisable and thereof together with all the negroes money and other estate given to her during her life and any other estate whatever not herein before mentioned be equally divided among all my children to have and to hold to them and their heirs forever. Thirdly I constitute and appoint my beloved wife Elizabeth executrix

In the name of God amen I William Coleman son of the County of humberland County being of sound mind and memory but calling to mind the uncertainty of life do make ^{constitute} and appoint this my last will and testament hereby ^{revoaking} all others heretofore made by me.

First it is my will and desire that all my lawful and just debts be faithfully discharged by my exors hereafter named, and if it be necessary to sell any part of my estate to discharge the same that the perishable part of one be sold by my exors for that purpose and not my land or negroes or any legacy hereafter specifically devoted to my person.

Secondly I lend to my son William Coleman for and during his natural life for the maintenance support and use of himself wife and children for and during his and his wife's life Two hundred acres of land to be taken from the ^{low end} ~~part~~ of the tract whereon I now live that is to say adjoining the lands of Archer Allen on the north and to be laid off by my exors so as to include the land I purchased of William Montgomery whereon my said son William now lives, and to do equal justice to all inherited, and after the death of my said son William and his wife Pamela I give the said land to all his lawful children or their legal representatives to them and their heirs forever but should my said son William ever attempt to sell his and his wife's life estate in said land I do hereby direct that the division aforesaid be revoked and made null and void and that the whole and sole right to same be immediately vested in his children aforesaid I also give to my said son William Coleman two cows and calves an feather bed and furniture to him and his heirs aforesaid and not under the instructions aforesaid - - - - - Thirdly I give to my grand son Henry Coleman son of my son Henry Coleman as a compensation for living with me in the capacity of an overseer and in lieu of any other compensation for said services one negro man named Dave to him and his heirs forever -

Fourthly I give to my grand son Ferdinand Coleman son of my son Elliot Coleman the tract of land whereon I now live supposed to contain about four hundred acres after deducting the two hundred acres aforesaid lent to my son William with said four hundred acres of land aforesaid be the same more or less I give to my said grand son Ferdinand to him and his heirs forever I also give to my said grand son Ferdinand to his heirs forever one negro girl named Suky one barrel cotton ^{seed} of my best barrel mace and one bed and furniture - - - Fifthly I give to my grand son William D Coleman son of my son Henry Coleman a barrel mace known and called by the name of Jewel to him and his heirs forever. Sixthly I give to my grand son Stephen Coleman son of my son William Coleman one negro just named Polley to him and his heirs forever.

Seventhly It is my will and desire that all the residue of my estate not herein before particularly mentioned and divided away be divided in the following manner to wit my son Elliott and Henry accounting upon said division each for one negro man heretofore delivered them with said residue of my estate I send to my son Elliott Coleman Henry Coleman and William Coleman and my daughter Sarah Coleman wife of Matt Coleman for and during their natural lives and the natural lives of their present wives and after their death to equally divided among all their children to them and their heirs forever but what ever negro or negroes may fall to the lot of my son William under this residuary clause of my will, I send to him under the same restrictions that him the two hundred Acres of land aforesaid meaning should he offer said slaves for sale or should any of them be seized to be sold under any legal process that the wishes aforesaid as it respects any slave or slaves be immediately revoked made null and void that the absolute right title of said slaves be immediately vested in all his children lawfully begotten Lastly I do hereby nominate constitute & appoint my son Elliott Coleman and my friends Mr.
