

In the name of God amen I William Poppel of the county of Llanbuckland, being a low and declining state of health; (I tho in perfect memory and understanding and in my proper senses) do make and constitute; and by these presents, confirm, constitute and in, this my last will & testament: Thus revoking and rendering all wills & coven-heretofore made by me void & null; in the year of our lord one thousand seven-hundred, & seventy six, March the fourth -

My soul I resign to Almighty God my heavenly father who gave it.

I give and bequeath to my beloved wife, Martha as follows, to wit, Phil, Son of Jeremy, & Hannah, as her property, to dispose off as she thinks proper forever.

I give and bequeath to my daughter, Betsy, as follows to wit, Liverpool & Mersey and also a deed of gift by William Cox acknowledged in Llanbuckland court, consists of a tract of land & five meadows, and all appurtenances therefrom ensuing forever.
I desire my debts to be paid with the debts due to me; and in case there should not be enough to discharge what I owe - I desire that so much of the stocks be disposed of as be of value sufficient to discharge every just debt I owe; and in case the debts due to me shall over pay what I owe; the overplus to be divided between my wife and child. It is my desire also that my wife shall have the disposal of the stocks of all kinds if it is not requisite they should be sold to discharge my debts. I do appoint my worthy friends Joseph Cox & Simon Gentry & Wm Jones executors to my will Signed sealed and delivered in presence of Item I give and bequeath to my daughter Betsy as follows worth Liverpool & Henry
