That some time in the year 1778. a certain Edward Armistead deceased this life seized and possessed of real Estate Lands and ~~other~~ personal Property, having first made his last will and Testament in writing, which has been proved and is now in this honorable Court; to a copy of which your Orators and Oratrix beg leave to refer and pray to have it made part of the Record - That the widow of the said Edward, who together with William Armistead and William Armisteads have executed and executed the said will, qualified alone to take the said will, and took into possession of the Lands and other personal effects of the said Testator - That the said Edward after bequeathing sundry things in a particular manner, and being in a piece of Land to be sold for the payment of his debts, bequeathed as follows - "I give and bequeath unto my "loving children William, John, ~~John~~ Edward, Samuel and "Rebecca Armisteads the remaining part of my Negroes to be equally "divided between share and share alike, to them and their heirs "for ever, and at my aforesaid Wife's death the 3 Negroes, Hensher that the property left to be divided between the several Legates in the said Will named has never been accounted for by the Widow and Executors of the said Edward the elder - That your Orators and Oratrix as representing the respective Legates become now entitled to claim the proportions bequeathed by the said Will, and have demanded the same without Effect - In tender consideration 167^m - whereof, and for as much as your Orators and Oratrix are relievable in this worshipping Court in Chancery:

To the End therefore, that the said William Allen whom your Orators and Oratrix pray may be made Defendant to this their Bill may in his several Oath full true and perfect Answer make to all and singular the Allegations herein contained particularly that the said ~~Edward the Elder~~ may self hath and ~~may~~ ~~may~~ Edward the Elder did not leave such Last Will and Testament as is herein referred to - Whether the said did not receive all the Slaves and personal Estate of the said Edward - Whether a trail of Lands devised by said Will has been sold by the Executors - and how the Money has been applied - Whether he has not administered on the Estate of the said Martha, the Executors ~~Other~~ the sundry Slaves and other property in the possession of said Martha at her death, and belongs to the Estate of her Testator have not come to his Hands - And that this worshipping Court will decree a full and fair account to be rendered of the transactions of the said Martha with the Estate of Edward Administrator the Elder And that this worshipping Court will decree a sale and division of the Slaves and other property in the Hands of the said Martha at her death and also decree to your Orators their respective right and proportion of what shall be found due from and in the Hands of the said Executors, and make such other and further decree in the premises, as to this Court shall seem
