

me of God Amen, I, John Jenkins of Elly. being very sick & weak, but in perfect my thanks be to Almighty God for the to what worldly good it hath pleased me I give & bequeath as follows: ¹⁶² under that all my just debts & my funeral bequeath unto my Loving daughter Mary Twenty pounds current money. — all I desire is that my whole Estate be kept and that my debts be paid on my behalf during my wife's widowhood, towards part of maintenance of my Loving wife herself and all my children and after her death to be equally divided between my said son John Jenkins, my son James Jenkins, Mary Jenkins & my son Edward Jenkins, to their heirs for ever and that my said Estate passed except by such persons as my Executioners shall direct, and lastly I do — & appoint my loving wife Ann Jenkins his & my friend James Griffin, Tho. Dixon being my Executors of this my last will revoaking & annulling all other wills etc made by me In witness whereof I do set my hand & Seal this twenty third th 1754 —

one

John Jenkins

inc

unig

