Wm. Moxley Clerk.

In the name of God Amen I John Bourne of the County of Essex and parish of St. Marys being very sick & weak in body but in perfect sense and memory thanks be to God for his name do make this my last will & testament: committing my soul to God that gave it and my body to the Earth to be interred according to the disposition of my last will & testament I do hereby name & first my will is that after my debts and funeral charges & aid the rest of my worldly estate to be paid of as follows. I appoint I do constitute and appoint my loving wife Ann Bourne to be the whole & sole executrix of this my last will and testament. I then I give to my son John Bourne the plantation I now live on and all the land adjoining to it (that is meaning all the land I hold) to him & his heirs for ever but in case my son John dies without issue lawfully begotten I give it to my son Andrew Bourne and his heirs for ever, and if he dies without issue lawfully begotten I give it to my son Robert Bourne and his heirs for ever but if he dies without issue lawfully begotten I give it to my son Francis Bourne to him & his heirs for ever and if he dies without issue lawfully begotten I give it to my son Henry Bourne & his heirs for ever and in case they all dye without heirs I leave it to be equally divided between my two daughters Christian and Sarah Bourne to them & their heirs for ever. I then I give to my loving wife Ann Bourne all my goods & chattels for ever to be at her sole power & disposal. I then I give to my son Robert Bourne my 100 shillings to him and his heirs for ever but if he dies without issue lawfully begotten I give him to my son Andrew Bourne to him and his heirs for ever. I have give to my son John Bourne Mag^r Jonny to him and his heirs for ever but if he of negro Jonny bears a child or children the first she brings I give to my daughter Christian Bourne the next to my daughter Sarah the next to my son James Bourne & the next to my son Henry Bourne to them and their heirs for ever. I have I give to my wife Elizabeth Bourne a feather bed couster & pillows one rug one blanket & a pair of sheets to her and her heirs for ever. I have I give to my daughter Sarah Bourne a feather bed couster and pillows one rug one blanket and a pair of sheets to her and her heirs for ever. I have I give to my daughter Christian Bourne my show bath mare and the salt that is now with her and her uncase to her and her heirs for ever. I have I give to my daughter Sarah Bourne my raw ugs mare and the mare salt that is now with her them & their uncase to her and her heirs for ever. I have I give to my son John Bourne a bay mare with a small star in her forehead branded with ID her & her uncase to him and his heirs for ever. I have I give to my son Robert Bourne a bay mare which is now in John Hoods pasture her and her uncase to him & his heirs for ever (the do mare is branded with 3) I have I give to my son Andrew Bourne a young horse branded with a cross to him & his heirs for ever. I have I give to my son Francis Bourne a gray mare salt now running with my old mare her and her uncase to him and his heirs for ever. I have I give to my son Henry Bourne a young black mare salt with some white in her face her & her uncase to him and his heirs for ever. all the rest of my estate after my debts and Legacies being paid I give to my Loving wife Elizabeth Bourne to her and her heirs for ever to be at her own proper disposal. And my will is that my children shall not make any demand or enjoy the Legacies given them till they attain to the age of wholly one year or the day of marriage and so looking all other wills by me made I do acknowledge this to be my last will & Testament as witness my hand & seal
