Jest, M. Magruder to. law.

Alexandria 20th Jan^y 1793.
 I Thomas Bond in the name of my most mercifull God, do in sound State of mind but infirmity of Body and uncertain of the continuance of life from principles of age and to my few creditors and my little family, make this my last Will and testament. First, I order my negroe man Joe now in the service of Henry Praning to be liberated from future bondage.

2nd. I order Jacob Le Gay to whom I suppose I owe three hundred pounds and for which he has no document to be paid twenty four pounds per annum out of my Estate and that he has a right to Will four hundred pounds when he pleases or shall give that sum payable out of my Estate if I leave any to whom he chooses, it to be paid as soon as convenient to my Executors, or the annuity above til paid.

3^d. To my late faithful servant Henry South Megawath five hundred acres of my land either out of my own survey or Buchanan or in Clarke as called, now reserved for me on the waters of Cheat and Monongehela in the name of Col^l William McCleary of Morgan Town held in trust for me, as will appear by his friendly acknowledgement to that purpose in a paper now in the possession of major Samuel Hanway surveyor of the County of Monongehela. 4th. All my debts to be paid as soon as possible.

5th I give unto Lawrence Sterne Smallwood an orphan now an apprentice of William Hunter's Coachmaker four thousand acres of my Buchanan lands. --- 6th I give to Letitia Annwell an orphan some where in Philadelphia who was brought up by two thousand acres of my Buchanan lands. --- 7th To Miss Abigail Lu-hens for whom I have a sincere regret I bequeath one hundred pounds or two thousand acres of my said Buchanan lands which ever is most agreeable to her and convenient to my Executors. --- 8th And the rest of my real property I order to be sold when my Executors please or divided between them, my personal property to my beloved wife Jane Bond, and I here nominate her, William Ward Barrows my affectionate friend and Sarah Bond my dear and dutiful daughter, my Executors, and I hereby exonerate William Ward Barrows from any debt he owes me, as also my brother Venables Bond, save that the said Barrows secures to Sarah Bond either from Justice's place the thirty acres of Confiscated property that Jones held, or from Richard Marrons present possession the sum of Three hundred pounds with Interest after next August. --- 9th To William M. Pherson my most worthy friend I bequeath One thousand of the most valuable acres of land I have in one body on the Cheat, as a token of my esteem and gratitude, there having devised my property if any. I hope to be ready to meet my great and glorious benefactor and saviour and desire that my Executors may have me buried on some land of My own if I have any within twenty miles of my death, and that they order a small Stone placed either at the foot or head of the Grave with this Inscription "Hic jacet, Thomas Bond." Signed Sealed & delivered in the presence of } Tho^s Bond.

On recollection I have omitted Elizabeth-Ferris a daughter of my wife, and in case of her the said Jane Bonds death previous to her inheritance and what I have bequeathed her, I order that the surviving Executors shall place in good security four hundred pounds to be paid her when she arrives at the age of eighteen, and I further design this and the other bequests to my wife as a full compensation for her thirds and that all the sums here mentioned are in Pennsylvania Currency.
