George Mason of Lexington in the parish of Inno County of Fairfax being of perfect & sound Mind & Memory but in bad health & Mindfull of the uncertainty of human Life do make & appoint this my last will & Testament. My Body I desire may be decently Buried but without pomp or parade in a plain unornamented Coffin in the family Burying ground at Gunston - I request and particularly desire that neither my Family nor Friends wear Mourning for me unless it be a Scarf or some such triffling Badge - My worldly Estate I dispose of in manner Here following - Imprimis I give & bequeath to my wife Elizabeth during her Life or Widowhood my Mansion House & Seat called Lexington together with the Gardens, Orchard & Pasture adjoining - Item I give & bequeath to my wife during her Life or Widowhood my plantation in Dogue Neck - Commonly called the Dogue Neck Quarter where I Tugate is Overseer for the present year 1795 - together with all the Negroes Stocks of Horses - Cattle, Sheep, Hogs &c, which shall properly belong to and be maintained at the said plantation at my Death with all the plantation utensils Impliments of Husbandry thereto belonging Item I give and devise to my wife during her Life or widowhood the six following Slaves to wit Sarah, Phillis, Betty, Cooke Charles, Jerry, son of Occoquan Nell, & George son of Phillis, also my Saddle Horses, Carriage & Horses, and my Waggon & Horses, at Lexington also the use of all my Plate Household & Kitchen Furniture also the right & Privilege of getting wood and Timber in any part of my Land in Dogue Neck for the proper use of the said plantation in Dogue Neck & the Mannor House & plantation at Lexington - Item I give and Devise to my sons George & William & their Heirs forever when they arrive at the age of twenty one years or marry whichever shall first happen my Tract of Land whereon I now live called Dogue Neck to be divided between them by the following Lines or Bounds viz to begin on the River Potomack at a place called the Causeway point at the Mouth of the great March, which is about half way between the upper Landing at the plantation where I dwell now & a place well known by the name of Mount Sand Beach, thence in a straight Line Northerly thro' the said March to a small Island in the said March at or near the Mouth of Crawford's Creek over which I have made a Dam to drain the said Creek, the Island I suppose contains two or three Acres of Land thence thro' the said Island dividing it into two equal parts Northerly in a straight Line from the Island crossing the Road leading from Gunston to the Dogue Neck plantation thro' Halls old Field to some Honey Locust Lombardy poplars & Cherry Trees which stand near old Crawleys Grave Yard about one hundred Yards above the fording place over the Head of Halls Creek thence a straight Line Northerly thro' the woods so as to cross the near way path leading from Gunston to Lexington ^{exactly} half way between Lexington & the road leading out of the Neck called the Log-Town Road thence the Line Continued untill it strikes Mr. Cockburns Line in mentioning the Bearings of those dividing Lines I have quiped at the Courtes Suppos. generally they will be Northerly, my Intention will be easily known by any person acquainted with the situation of Dogue Neck This will de-divide the said Land Called Dogue Neck into two parts of nearly equal value one part having the seat & Mansion House Called Gunston & the other that Called Lexington my son George taking his first choice of those parts or Tracts when thus divided whichever of my sons getting the Gunston Hall Tract to have the right & privilege during his life of getting Timber in any
