At a Court held for Fairfax County the 15th day of September, 1800: This Inventory and Appraisement of the Estate of William Summers deceased, is returned, and ordered to be recorded.

Examined. Test, J. Penrose, cl.

In the name of God, Amen: I, Nathaniel Fitzhugh, of Fairfax County, being sick and weak in body, but of sound mind and memory—do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, hereby revoking and annulling all other Wills by me formerly made.

I prescribe. I resign my Soul into the hands of Almighty God, hoping for pardon of all my sins, through the mediation of my blessed Redeemer, Jesus Christ: My body I give to the ground, to be decently buried, according to the discretion of my Executors, hereafter named: And as to such worldly Goods as it hath pleased God to bestow upon me, I give and dispose of them in manner following. Item, I desire that all Debts I owe in right conscience may be paid as soon after my death as possible. As I am possessed of an Estate more than sufficient to pay all my Debts, I desire and direct it not to be appraised. Item. I desire that my Son John may be kept at School till, in the Judgment of my Executors, he shall have completed his Education—or shall have attained the age of twenty one. Item: I give, bequeath to my loving wife, Hannah Eskridge, all the residue of my Estate (except the lot of land leased to my brother, and Jackson's lot) until my Son shall have arrived to the age of Twenty one Years, for the support and Education of her and my Son; and when my son shall ^{have} arrived to the age of twenty one Years, my will and desire is, that all the residue of my Estate then remaining both real and personal shall be divided equally between my dear wife, Hannah Eskridge, and my dear son ^{when} (reserving to my wife the part of the Estate containing the Houses I now occupy.

At a Court held for Fairfax County the 15th day of September, 1800 This Last Will and Testament of Nathaniel Fitzhugh deceased was presented in Court, and the same being proved by the Oaths of Richard Coleman, Benjamin Thomas, Harbage Lane, Johnston Cleveland, Robert Jackson, and Richard Bland Lee, to be in the hand writing of the said Testator, is on motion, of William Lane, Senior, ordered to be recorded.

is necessary to declare that a few days previous to her death she told William Dulin that she wished her negro woman Bett and her child sold for a term of years; - That Bett should be sold for ten, and her child until it should arrive at the age of thirty Years, and that the money aris-

Visiting M^{rs} Sarah Dulin in her last illness, some little time before her death, I was present when her son, William Dulin, asked his Mother, M^{rs} Dulin, if she wished her negro woman, Bett, and her child to be sold, after her death, for a term of Years - she answered yes; he then asked her for how many Years? she answered for ten Years; and he then asked her if the child was to be sold for thirty years, and she answered yes.

In the Name of God, Amen: I Francis Summers of the County of Fairfax and State of Virginia, being blessed with sense and memory as much so as usual, conceive it my duty to make a distribution of my Estate between my wife and children before I die: which distribution I now make in the following manner, to wit: To my Son Thomas Summers I give and bequeath all the Land I possess lying on the North side of the Turnpike road as it now stands except half an acre, including the burial Ground which I reserve for the use of my family; which said Land the said Thomas Summers is to possess as soon as he becomes of age, provided he pays to his mother, Jane Summers, the annual sum of Three pounds during her natural life, and at her death the sum of Seventy pounds in Specie, to such person or persons as I may direct by this my last Will and Testament To my loving wife, Jane Summers, I give and bequeath an annuity of Fifty Dollars during her life to be paid by my five Sons, George Summers, John Summers Francis Summers and Samuel Summers, agreeable to their respective Bonds which I possess; and the condition of this my last Will so far as it respects my Son, Thomas Summers: Also all my Personal Estate, after my just Debts are paid, to her, and at her disposal forever.

And whereas I am possessed of the Obligation of my four sons, George, John, Francis and Samuel, for the payment of Two hundred and Eighty pounds, after my decease, also have enjoined it on my son Thomas Summers by this my Will, to pay the sum of Seventy pounds; making in the whole three hundred and fifty pounds; I dispose of the same in the following manner, that is to say - To the heirs of my son, William Summers, one hundred pounds, to be equally divided among them, as they shall arrive of age

To my daughter, Susanna Miller, one hundred pounds, to be paid within twelve months after my wife's decease.

To my grandson, David Price, One hundred pounds, to be paid as soon as he becomes of age, and in case of his death, previous to that time, then my Will is that his legacy be equally divided among the whole of my children, or their Heirs.

To my 3^d daughter, Ann Chatter, now Ann Spurling, the sum of Fifty pounds, to be paid within twelve months after my wife's decease.

My sons George, John, Francis and Samuel, are possessed by Deeds of an equal proportion of my real Estate; I have therefore omitted making further provision for them.

And lastly, I do constitute and appoint George Summers, Thomas Miller, Francis Summers and Robert Moss, Executors to this my last Will and Testament.

In Witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, this Tenth day of September, 1800.

In the name of God, Amen: I, Samuel Love, of Salisbury and County of Fairfax, in the State of Virginia, being of sound mind, do make this my Last Will and Testament, in manner and form following.

Imprimis: - It is my Will and desire that all my debts be paid

Item: I give to my beloved wife, Sarah Love, negroes Scip, yellow Jenny, and her child, and Polly, and their future increase; I also give her all the remaining negroes and other property that she or myself may be entitled to under the Will of her Father as a dividend of that Estate has never yet been made. - I also give her negroes Nathan, Peter, and Patt (who is lame in one hand) and her future increase: I also give her six of the best milk-cows and their calves, if they should have any at the time of her making choice; twelve head of Sheep, three Horses and a Mare; - she to have her choice of all the Stock I may die possessed of; except a roan Mare that I bought of Henry Washington, or any of her increase. - I also give my beloved wife the bed that we have generally laid on, with the mahogany bedstead with the Curtains and all the other furniture thereunto belonging to our lodging room: I also give her her choice of two other beds and furniture, and one fourth part of the remaining part of my household and kitchen furniture (the remaining beds and furniture excepted) meaning by this that she is not to have any dividend the remaining beds, after taking out the three first given her. I also give to my beloved wife, any riding Carriage I may die possessed of that she may choose.

Knowing that it will not be my beloved wife's desire to live in Virginia after my death, it is my will and desire that she is paid out of my Estate, Yearly and every Year, during her natural life, the sum of One hundred and fifty Dollars, in lieu of Dower in any of my Lands; to the annual payment of said one hundred and fifty Dollars, - I do hereby subject all the Land I may die possessed of in Virginia; so that distress may be made thereon for that sum each Year, during her natural life, in case my Executor &c. hereafter named, should fail to pay the same or cause it to be done, at the end of each Year. - I also give to my beloved wife Two hundred Dollars, to be paid her by my Executor &c. - that is to say, one half in six months, and the remainder in twelve months after my death. The aforesaid negroes, stock, and household furniture, &c. I give to my beloved wife, and her Heirs forever, in lieu of Dower in any part of my Estate, either real or personal.

Item: I give and bequeath to my two Daughters, Nancy Love, and Harriot Love, and to my son, John Courts Love, a tract of land lying in the State of Tennessee, it being a tract of land that I bought of John Love, contains by Patent, five thousand Acres; said land lies on Crow Creek; this tract of land to be divided amongst my two daughters and son, as above mentioned - as follows (viz.) two-fifths thereof I give to my daughter, Nancy Love; I also give two-fifths thereof to my daughter, Harriot Love, and one-fifth thereof I give to my son John Courts Love. As I have two tracts of land of the same size by patent in Tennessee, and both lying on Crow-Creek, and both bought of John Love, - in order to distinguish one from the other, I mean this to be that tract that is lowest down the said water-course, called Crow Creek, - all of said tract of land I give to my two daughters and son before mentioned, to them and their Heirs forever, as

Tenants in Common and not as Joint Tenants

Item. I give and bequeath to my two sons Richard Hendley Love and my son Henry Jones Love, my other tract of Land of five thousand acres by Patent, lying in State of Tennessee, on Crow Creek; I mean ^{this} to be the tract that lies the highest up said Creek or above the other one that I have bequeathed to my two Daughters and my son John C. Love. - I give and bequeath the said tract of Land to my two sons Richard Hendley Love, and Henry Jones Love, to them and their forever, as Tenants in common, and not as Joint-Tenants.

Item. I give and bequeath to my daughter, Nancy Love, a negro girl called Maria, a daughter of Hannah's, to her and her heirs forever.

Item. I give and bequeath to my daughter Harriet Love, a negro girl called Eliza (a daughter of Hannah's) to her and her heirs forever.

Item. I give and bequeath to my son, John Courts Love, a negro boy called John (a son of Patts) to him and his heirs forever.

Item. - I give and bequeath to my son, Richard Hendley Love, two negro boys, the one called Nicholas, and the other Edmund or Edward (both sons of Patts) to him and his heirs forever.

Item: I give and bequeath to my son, Henry Jones Love, two negro boys, one called Henry, and the other Randall (both sons of Betts) to him and his heirs forever.

Item: The Lower Negroes bought of Anthony Thornton, and Benjamin Berryman Thornton, as will appear from Deeds recorded in Stafford County; said negroes are held by Doctor Robert Wellford, and Nathaniel Fox, who married the two widows Thorntons.

It is my Will, that whenever any of said Negroes becomes my property, either by the death of M^r. Wellford or M^r. Fox, or on the death of both; that they are equally divided between my sons, Charles Jones Love, Richard Hendley Love, Henry Jones Love, and also

16. My Daughters Nancy Love and Harriot Love to be equally divided between my three Sons and two Daughters above mentioned to share and share alike all of which I give to them and their heirs forever. - Item: The Land bought of Anthony Thornton and Benjamin Thornton that was sold to William Alexander, of Stafford by Jesse Simms which Land was conveyed at my request by said Thorntons to said Simms: Now should it appear or I suppose do that from any irregular proceedings that the title is still in me in that case I do hereby give and bequeath all the right and title to said tract of Land as sold by said Jesse Simms to said Alexander, if any then be in me, to said William Alexander (of Stafford County) to him and his heirs forever. Let it be here understood that I only mean to convey any supposed right that may be in me Item - Peter Hoffman has lived with me many Years, a part of the time at Twenty-five pounds $\text{$}$. Year, and the rest at Thirty) pounds $\text{$}$ Year: It has been sometime since we ^{have} had a final Settlement; I do suppose'd if a fair and just settlement was made, that I should perhaps owe him fifty or sixty pounds. I have always furnished him with clothes and money from time to time as he wanted them. He having been long in my employ, and from my attachment to him, - I do hereby request my Executor to pay him in twelve months after my death, four hundred Dollars, in full, and in lieu of any claim or claims he can have against me, for his services to me performed in my life-time.

Item: I give and bequeath to my son Charles Jones Love, all the property I may die possessed of (not heretofore bequeathed) both real and personal, either in this or any other State that I may be possessed of, or have a right to, - out of which he is to pay my debts, and the money Legacies heretofore mentioned - all of which I give to him and his heirs forever. - It is my will and desire, that my son Charles Jones Love be Executor of this my Last Will.

Lastly - Having wrote this Will with my own hand, I have called no one to witness the same, but here declare it to be my last Will and Testament: In consideration whereof I have signed my name and affixed my seal, this 22nd July, 1800.
