COURT OF COMMON PLEAS NO. 2 PHILADELPHIA
JUDGE'S CHAMBER
ROOM 461 CITY HALL

NORRIS S. BARRATT, JUDGE

March 22, 1915.

My dear Sir:-

When I was a student at law in February, 1882, my preceptor died, and the old papers which had accumulated in his practice were destroyed. While they were being taken away an envelope endorsed "Original records of the Court of Fairfax county, Virginia Captured in 1862 during a Cavalry raid," I noticed on the top of a waste paper basket. I picked it up, examined it, and found three summon's, two of 1754, the other of 1796, signed Peter Wagener, Clerk, Fairfax county, Virginia, and a blank summons when Alfred Moss was Clerk of Fairfax County, in 1860. I was about 19 years old, and, as historic material always appealed to me, I saved them from destruction. I put them in a scrap book, and in the thirty-two years that have passed since then, forgot all about them until the old records came into my mind when I was talking to you about the Civil War at our pleasant meeting at Alexandria-Washington Lodge, No. 22, on Washington's Birthday. As I told you I had not seen them for years, so I was glad to able to find them, and it gives me great pleasure to be able to return them to you so that they can be restored to the files of your Court office after an absence of over half a century. I know nothing about them, except as I have stated, but I know you will be interested and glad to get them back. I enjoyed my visit to Alexandria very much, especially meeting you, Reverend Mr. Morton and Mr. Callahan.

(A. G. Uhler, Esq.)

With kind regards,

I am,

Fraternally yours,

Nomis S. Paratt.
