Smith's division

We the subscribers in obedience to an order of the worshipful Court of Fauquier being first sworn, have divided the estate of John Smith dec'd betwixt his sons Richard and John Smith (Viz;) Bob a young Fellow and Willt a young wench to be Richard, and Tom and Willoty his wife, Jenny and Henry their children to be Johns, and as there appears a probability of there not being so indisputable right to Bob, as the others, It is fully agreed so that in case the said Bob at a future day should be taken from Richard then John is to pay Richard half the then value of said Bob, Given under our hands this 29th day of October 1785
