In Obedience to a decretal order of the worshipful Court of Fauquier directing us to divide the Real and personal Estate of James McClanahan deceased we have proceeded in the first place to divide the land, not agreeable to quantity and quality, but agreeable to quantity, and then ascertained the value of each lot, and directed the same to be paid from the most valuable to the least valuable lots, which we did at the request of all the distributees the lots were then divided by drawing, the dower land we considered as being laid off equal in quantity and quality, agreeable to a plat herewith returned, which represents all the lots of the above land, &c. divided by us we have also proceeded to assign the widows dower in the Slaves, and personal Estate, and then to divide the residue thereof among the other 354 distributing, which we have endeavoured so far as it relates to the slaves to divide in kind as near as we could each of the distributees (that is the children of the Intestate) produced accounts of all the money or other property received from the decedent in his lifetime which were sworn to this sum amounting £161. 11 we did not add to the aggregate amount till after we had assigned the Dower of the widow. Considering that sum as having been given away in the life time of the intestate and no part of his Estate at the time of his death, we have also proceeded to make up an account for each of the distributees and also a General account, which we also annex, to, and return agreeable to the within given under our hands and Seals. MB. The charges in the different accounts in the lists of balances being at a much higher rate than is allowed by law for the services rendered and a number of the suits for which they are charged being in an unfinished state which will make it necessary for the clients to be at new expense in retaining new counsel and the loose manner in which the book is kept will render it highly probable that a number the accounts are already entirely or nearly discharged and if not that the debtors will dispute paying them at all or at a greater rate than the legal fee.

Teste J. Brooke. C.C.

In the name of God Amen I Humphrey Brooke of the County of Fauquier being in my perfect senses do make this my last will and testament, First I give to my beloved wife Melly Brooke, the carriage and her choice of any five horses that may in my possession at the time of my death. three feather beds and furniture (to be of her choice) whatever tables, chairs and presses she may choose, one dozen silver table spoons one dozen silver tea spoons being those now in the house, my watch one hundred barrels of corn four cows and calves, twelve sheep and whatever hogs may be on the plantation at the time of my death. also the table linen and bed linen and kitchen furniture. I also give to my said wife during her life the use of the following slaves, to wit, Frank (a man) great Harry, yellow Harry, and Billy, (three men) Hannah (daughter of Lucy) a young woman, Moll a woman and her children, Thornton, Michael, Frank, Nancy Buchanan, Dinah and Charlotte. and the future increase of the said Moll. I give to my son Francis Brooke and to his heirs the tract of land I bought of George Boswell. and a negro boy named Richard now in his possession after the payment of my debts it is my will that all the rest of my Estate may be equally divided between my son Matthew Whiting Brooke and my daughters Ann Brooke, Catharine Powell, and Lucy Ingram and their heirs forever, after the death of my wife it is my will and desire that the negroes which I have given her the use of may be divided equally among my four children just above mentioned, I leave the use of the house hold furniture I purchased at the sale by the sheriff of Thomas Digges Estate in February 1801 to my daughter Elizabeth Digges during her life, and after her death I desire that the said furniture may be divided among her children, My sons George Brooke and Francis Brooke have each of them already received much more than it is in my power to give to any of my other children and so hath my daughter Elizabeth Digges with which I hope they will be satisfied. It may be that some or other of the negroes I have given my wife the use of may misbehave, himself her self or them selves in that case, I hereby empower my Executors hereafter named (at my wifes request) to sell such slave or slaves and apply the money arising from such sale to the purchase of another slave or slaves which slave or slaves so purchased to supply the place of such as may be sold and to be divided in the same manner as those would have been that were sold. I hereby constitute and appoint my son Matthew Whiting Brooke and my son in law Burr Powell Executors of this my last will and testament which I have written with mine own hand (writing which can easily be proved) this twentieth day of April in the year of our lord one thousand Eight hundred and two. and affixed thereto my seal

Fauquier
Will

In the name of god Amen I John M'Farland of the County of Fauquier being sick and weak but of perfect mind and memory do make and ordain this my last will and testament first I recommend my soul to god who gave it and my body to the earth. to be buried in a decent manner and as to my worldly goods I dispose of them in the following manner, my just debts and funeral expenses being first paid. I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Jane M'Farland one half of all the estate both real and personal that I may die possessed of or may have any rights to which I give to my said wife Jane and to her heirs and assigns forever, I also give to my said beloved wife Jane the whole and sole use benefits and profits of all the residue of my said Estate for and during her natural life

I give and bequeath to my nephew John M'Farland (if there be such a person living at my decease) the last mentioned half or residue of my estate after the death of my said wife Jane, which I give to him and to his heirs and assigns forever but if there should be no such person living at my death then and in that case I give and bequeath that part of the estate left to my said wife during her life to be equally divided between the whole of my brother Robert M'Farlands children when my said wifes rights therein shall cease, which I give to them and to their heirs and assigns forever. It is my will and desire that my executors hereafter named shall have full power with the consent of my said wife to sell or otherwise dispose of for the benefit of my estate any of the slaves which I may die possessed of

Item. I leave to the discretion of my said Executors the power of giving out of the above legacies bequeath to my nephew or brother's children, the sum of two hundred dollars to be paid to Rachel Dabroe my niece or to either of her children as they may so cause after the death of my said wife Jane or sooner if she my said wife thinks proper; And Lastly I do hereby appoint my beloved wife Jane M'Farlane Executrix and my friends John CRAIN and John Tylor, Executors of this my last will and testament hereby ratifying and confirming the same; and revoking all others heretofore made, and if the law will allow the Court to take bonds from my Executrix and Executors without security for their performance, and settlement of my estate herein mentioned, it is my will and desire that they give no security In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 16th day of January 1802

allotment of Dower

In pursuance of the order of Court herunto annexed we the Commissioners thereby appointed did meet on the Eleventh instant for the purpose of allotting to the said Alice Hawkins her dower in the said land and not being to complete the said allotment on that day adjourned to this 15th day of October in the year 1802 and on this day after viewing the said Tract of land and surveying such part thereof as were necessary to make a fair allotment do allot to the said Alice Hawkins for her dower in the said Tract that part of it contained in the following description, to wit, We began at a Stone in the angle of three white oaks near the road leading to Greenwich which Stone is marked with the letters A.P. and we ran with a bourse of the said Tract about South 111 degrees West two hundred and fourteen poles or thereabouts, to a pile of stones on the said road which pile of stones we made the Beginning of the said dower, so allotted, and run thence across the said Tract South seventy seven degrees East to two Bees on the opposite side of the said land, to the line of Carr or Carrs Executors, thence with line of Carr South westerly to Parkers Corner, thence with the lines of the said Tract and Parkers lines, South, and westerly around the said Tract to Bernard Lovers land thence up the Carolina road with line of said Lover and Hawkins to the Beginning including the dwelling house State H. on the said land; which part of the said land including the buildings, We are of opinion is about the one Equal third part of the said land, and report to the Court of Fauquier accordingly to that effect, In Witness whereof we have herunto affixed our hands and the day and year herein before mentioned.
