In the Name of God. Amen.

I Archbill Sneed of the County of Fluvanna being sick and weak in Body but perfect in mind and memory, and reflecting on the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death being appointed unto all men once to dye, do make and declare this my last Will and Testament in manner following, that is to say.

Manner at the dissolution of my last Will hereafter to be named. I do give my worldly goods I dispose of in the following manner. That is to say I Give unto my wife Sarah Sneed the House where I now live with as much of the plantation and the produce of my Estate as shall be sufficient for supporting her during the time she shall remain my Widow. I give to my Son Burrill my land and plantation to him and his Heirs forever, and in case my said Son Burrill shall dye before ^{he} arrives to age or without issue the lands to descend to my two Sons Holman and Archbill. My Negroes together with the residue of my whole Estate to be kept together untill the 23 day of December which shall happen in the Year 1791 then to be equally divided amongst my children then surviving they or their Heirs except my said Burrill who has my lands in place thereof that part allotted at the time of division to my Daughter Matilda to be kept and disposed by her Mother my now wife during her natural life my Will is that my Sons Archbill, John and Burrill be put to Travels till of age, those of my younger Children to be kept together and schooled with a necessary Support out of the produce of my Estate. I appoint my Son Holman Sneed, Thomas Pope and Thomas Winer Executors to this my last Will. In Witness whereof I've hereunto set my hand and Seal this 1st day of January 1781.
