Consequently, in view of the established fact of Jameson's conduct. We have decided the result of John Smith's suit to the satisfaction of the parties as follows: Two miles of land to the river were set off, owned between James Smith and Henry Smith beginning at a dividing line as we do agree in Samuel Lightfoot's line and continued down to the mouth fork of Cunningham's Creek to a symmetre: James Smith to have the place whereon he now lives and Henry Smith the place wherein he now lives.
