

Administration of the Estate of Joseph Haden deceased Haden deceased and are first presented to examine his Account which which Vouchers were produced for the greatest part of which as stated in said Account are now satisfied without question and the Commissioners there proceeded to examine the same in detail in said executors Account & find a balance in favor of said decedents estate of Thirteen hundred and sixty five dollars and ninety two cents, as is exhibited in said Accts but your Commissioners beg leave to observe that a Bond of $100 taken by Jos Haden in his lifetime on a Summ Due of Augusta County is thought to be doubtful perhaps defective there is also a debt of $84 due from William Wood whereof $30 dollars is enjoined which debt was also contracted by Jos Haden in lifetime there is also a Bond in suit in the County Court of Albemarle for $147.98 where Bond was taken by the Executrix John N. Haden for property sold at the sale and appears to us to be enjoined for the full sum by the Bill being exhibited less all which is subject to the Court
