The last Will & Testament of Richard Mayo
 In the name of God Amen I Richard (Alias) Richard Mayo of the County of Hanover being at this time weak & in a low state of health but as I believe of sound and disposing mind hereby certify that the contents of my last my worldly affairs as to my last will and testament I do hereby make the following declaration. I do hereby make the following declaration. I do hereby make the following declaration.

First I desire that all my just debts be paid. Secondly I give devise and bequeath unto my friend William S Lane and to his heirs executors Administrators and assigns forever all my estate whatsoever both real & personal remaining after payment of my debts as aforesaid in which property I mean to include a woman of colour named Sucky called my wife and her future increase if any.

My Will is that this property shall all be held by & under the entire control of my friend said William S Lane and managed and disposed of as he may think proper with and under this special trust and confidence that he will at his discretion permit the said woman Sucky & her future increase and also my brother a free man of colour named Ned (generally called Sam Ned) to enjoy the benefit of the profits of said property during their lives and the life of the survivor in such manner and form as he may think proper. William S Lane shall think best as to promote their ease and comfort during their lives as aforesaid. It is also my Will and desire that my said friend William S Lane shall at his discretion sell or dispose of any part of my said property as answer the purposes aforesaid.

After the death of said woman Sucky & her increase if any and my said brother Ned. It is my will and desire that my said friend William S Lane shall have as his own property the balance which may remain of the estate hereby devised and bequeathed as aforesaid. Lastly I appoint the said William S Lane the sole executor of this my last Will and Testament.

Witness my hand and sealed by the presence of my last will and testament I do hereby make the following declaration. I do hereby make the following declaration. I do hereby make the following declaration.
