

I ^{do} Robert Burton Payne of the said County being sick and weak in Body, but in mind and memory perfectly sound, do make this my last Will and Testament—

First it is my desire that all my just Debts be paid, and for the purpose of accomplishing the same, do empower and direct my Executors hereafter to be named, to sell and dispose of my Estate either real or personal as to them shall seem right, and most for the advantage of my Family. The balance of my Estate real and personal, I lend to my beloved wife Margaret Sidenham Payne during her natural life, and after her decease to be equally divided between my Children. Lucy Maston Payne, Richard Dickeworth Payne, Robert Buxton Payne, Molly Susan Payne, Peggy Sidenham Payne, and Olney Brockenbrough Payne, I give to them and their Heirs forever. And I do hereby appoint my Brothers George Payne, and Joseph Payne my Executors to this my last Will and Testament. In Witness hereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this twenty third day of October in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eighty four.

At a Court held for Henrico County, on Thursday the third day of March 1785. This Will, was proved by the oaths of Tunstall Quaker, and Peter de Cuthbert two of the Witnesses thereto, and ordered to be recorded. And on the motion of George Payne, one of the Executors therein named, who made oath thereto, and entered into Bond with George Thompson Security, in the Penalty of four thousand pounds, - conditioned as the Law directs, Certificate is granted him for obtaining a probate thereof, in due form.
