In the Name of God. Amen.

I James Martin, being in perfect sense and memory but well knowing that it is appointed for all men once to die, do make and declare this to be my last Will and Testament as followeth. Item I do lend to my beloved wife Elizabeth Martin two Negroes Melford and Sam, also one black man and after the decease of my Mother, it is my desire my beloved Son Ruben Martin to have the land and all the rest of my earthly Estate to continue hereon but in case he should survive then the balance of my Estate to be taken by the Law and equally divided between my two Children Ruben Martin and Molly Martin. I also appoint Abram Parish and William Hughes the Sole Executors of this my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have
