

In the Forest of Solitude
 Beauty of Nature lay at the heart and in the soul, but the perfect mind and reasoning, its beauty makes my heart beat and its power, its meaning and form following that is my 1st I lend unto my beloved Wife Anna Benjamin all my estate (meaning his personal life: both real and personal) to be by her freely enjoyed 2^{dly} I give to my said Anna Benjamin after the death of my Wife the sum of three Dollars and thirty three Cents to be raised out my estate by my Executors hereafter to be named you I give to my son David Bryant the sum of three Dollars and thirty three Cents to be paid in the same manner as is mentioned in the 2^d place of the

It is given to you for Henry A. Bryant the sum of three Dollars and thirty three Cents to be paid in the nearest measure as is mentioned in the 2^d clause.

Given I give to my dear Son Sidney P. Bryant the sum of Three Dollars and thirty Cents to be paid on the same manner as mentioned in the 3rd of Nov. 1841.

6. I gave to my son Thomas Bryant the sum of Eighty three pounds sterling to be paid in the same manner as mentioned in the will.

and lastly, I give unto my son William Bryant (who I so highly think and estimate) to him my best Bull and his wife

(The first was Elizabeth's Exemption to this very last Will and Testament) "I do leave whomever I may live with all my other Estate of every kind the Book that then? be there on the plantation with every out standing debt to him and his heirs ^{and assigns} forever. It is my Will and power that no Appointment nor Inventory be made of my plate after my death hereby revoking all former Wills and Testaments by me last for made.
 In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my Seal this 5th day of July in the ninth year of James our said Kings date published and continued as are for should be my last Will and Testament

[illegible]

On purchase of an acre for a small building known to be granted to the Indians by the book 1808-1823
t. Affirmed the Chief of the same. The same was shown to the Indians. The same was shown to the people of the

[illegible]

4	3	4
46	46	3155 103

Set a Court of Quarterly Session continued and held for the usual term on Tuesday the 26th day of August 1840

John T. Turteltaub, B. H. C.

Fluvanna Co. VA Will Book 1, 1808-1823
www.virginiapioneers.net

Mrs	$ 300
Phily	300
Vicy	250
Hayday	50
Henry	157. 50
Don't	20

The Legislature having thus met, has the balance of the present session closed and ready to meet those of those

[illegible]