King Dant
his will

In the name of God, Amen. I Daniel King of Stafford County, being weak in body, but of disposing mind to make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, first, I recommend my soul into the hands of Almighty God who gave it; and my body to the earth to be decently interred at the discretion of my executors hereafter named; and as to any worldly estate wherewith it hath pleased God to bless me, I dispose of in the following manner: First, I desire that all my land with the improvements thereon be divided as follows: I give and bequeath to my sons John King and Joseph King the land whereon I now live lying on both sides of Ballenger Creek, to be divided between them by and according to the Meanders of the Creek, that part of the said tract lying on the Western side of the said Creek to belong to John King and that part of the said tract lying on the Eastern side of the said Creek to belong to Joseph King, to them severally and to their respective heirs and assigns forever; reserving unto myself to my two daughters Betridge and Melley the sole and exclusive use and occupancy of the said Plantation on the said land on which I live together with the houses, orchards, Springs, fences, and all the uninclosed ground and also the free use of timber from any part of the said Lands, to support fences, houses &c. and fuelwood; to be held by my said daughters in joint Tenancy, as long as they shall remain unmarried and when they shall be married, and use and occupy the same, as any part thereof. But in case of the death, intermarriage, or removal of both or either of my said Daughters, my Will is that my two sons John and Joseph should enjoy the said Land and improvements according to the Original Division and subdivisions hereunto before made.

My Will is that the said Land should be generally be called theirs, including all the improvements by them made since my other Daughters left me to them and their heirs forever. I also give to my two daughters Betridge and Melley the bush of corn, fodder wheat and Tobacco made on the Plantation the present year, together with the provisions laid in, or to be laid in, or intended to be laid in for family consumption, the ensuing year, to be equally divided between them after raising therefrom the sum of three pounds, which three pounds I give to my Daughters Diner, to them and their heirs forever.

All the rest of my estate both real and personal I desire may be equally divided between my four Daughters, Betridge, Melley, Sarah and Diner, to them and their heirs forever. And should any of my daughters aforesaid die without lawful issue, before distribution of this part of my estate be made, my Will is that her or their part so dying be divided between those of my aforesaid Daughters that may survive, or the lawful issue of such as may be dead, in such proportion that the issue of such as may happen to die be entitled to the Brothers proportion of the said bequest hereby made.

Now, I do hereby ratify and confirm unto my Daughters Susanna having been present at the making of this my last Will and Testament, and which have been delivered to them and their heirs forever.

My Will and desire is that my estate be not appraised. Lastly, I do constitute and appoint my friends William Sayre and James Hurditt Executors of this my last Will and Testament, touching and concerning all other Wills heretofore made, declaring this only to be my last Will and Testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 5th day of February 1798.
