 Will
 Ec?

In the name of God amen, whereas it is ordained for all men once die, and calling to mind how uncertain the time is, when that may happen I George Turnbull being in my sound senses and of disposing mind, though weak of body do make and ordain this to be my last Will and Testament revoking all wills heretofore made by me—first I desire my body to be decently buried—hoping for a resurrection through the merits of our blessed saviour Jesus Christ. Then I desire that all my just debts be paid, and as to such property as God has been pleased to bestow on me, I dispose of it as follows, I leave to my beloved Wife during her natural life, all my Negroes, Stocks & horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, household furniture and personal property of all kinds, and descriptions and at the death of my beloved Wife Abigail Turnbull, my will and desire is that the Negroes and other property hereby lent her, go to and be divided equally among my five daughters, and provided any of my Daughters should die before their mother, then the children of such Daughter to come in for a fifth part—my will further is that my beloved Wife have the use and enjoyment of all my Lands, during life—and at the death of my beloved Wife, I give to my son Lewis Turnbull, and his heirs for ever, all my Lands—to hold the same in feesimple, but ~~upon consideration of my doing so much for my~~ son Lewis Turnbull—said Lewis Turnbull is in three years from my death to pay his brother William Turnbull the sum of one Thousand Dollars money of these United States, and ⁱⁿ event of the death of the P. William Turnbull then D. Lewis Turnbull is to pay the aforesaid sum of one Thousand dollars to the children of his brother William Turnbull—For fear that my Will with respect to the division of my personal property after my death might be misunderstood I do hereby direct that when ^{the} personal property is divided after the death of my beloved Wife that Negroes be divided equally as aforesaid among my Daughters, and that ⁱⁿ D. division, those Negroes shall be included which ^{now} at any time have lent or given to any of my said Daughters—Lastly I appoint my beloved Wife Abigail Turnbull

Executrix and John Sample Lewis Turnbull Joseph Hale and Edmund Tate Executors of this my last Will & Testament. In Witness of all which I have hereunto set my hand & affixed my seal this 4th day of December 1807 my name written in my own hand Writing.
