Henry Stover
Last Will & Testament

In the name of god. Amen, I Henry Stover, of Franklin County am sick and Weak in body, though of Perfect mind and memory thanks be given to god for his mercies, Calling to mind the mutability of men, and that it is appointed for all men once to die, I do make and ordain this my last Will and Testament. First of all and Principally, I recommend my soul in the hands of almighty god who gave it; and my body to the Earth, to be Buried in a Christian Manner. Touching these worldly goods wherewith it hath pleased god to bless me in this life I dispose of them off in Manner following: First I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife, Anna Peaceable Possession in the house wherein I now live during her life time also one Cow her choice among my Cattle, her own Bed also ten Bushels of Good wheat and one hundred pounds of Merchantable pork and Ten pounds of Hockles Flax and one gallon of whiskey and Five wood Brought to her door during her life time out of my Estate yearly, (also the above mentioned Cow is to be found for in Pasture and in other food yearly). I give unto my son John all my Lands which I possess and all my other moveable Goods to him and heirs forever provided always and in Particular in this Case that he shall pay all my Just debts in one year time after my Decese and as my two sons Christian and Henry are not Capable to Provide for themselves he shall find for himself sufficient house Room & Clothing & other Necessaries as long as they live and they shall help him to Work as long as long as they are able, and he my said son John shall pay out of my Estate to each of my other four dear Children, namely Jacob, Mary, Agadelena and Christina twenty Shillings to Each within ten years after my decese and I appoint my beloved Friends Jacob Spry and Thomas Payne to be my lawful Executors of this my last Will and Testament and I hereby overthrow all wills here before made by me declaring this to be my last Will and Testament and no other whereunto. I have set my hand and seal this Eleventh day of January 1798.

Signed, sealed and delivered by the said
Henry Stover as his last Will & Testament
