Account
Examined

In conformity to an order of Franklin August Term 1812. We Benjamin Cook, Robert Ames & Richard Stockton have duly examined the account current between Joel Shrewsbury Guardian and Robert A. Dickinson, and the orphans children of John Dickinson deceased and have duly examined the charges against the said Ward, likewise examined the credits he appears to be entitled to, for moneys received by the said Guardian Interest thereon, and allowing the said orphan Wages for his services when in the employ of the said Guardian and giving the said Guardian a commission of 5% on moneys received by him for said Orphans, do find the said Guardian justly indebted to the said Robert A. Dickinson orphan the sum of Two hundred and seventy five pounds three Shillings and 1/2 certified under our hands this sixteenth day of September 1812.
