1813 March 9 By Ballance due John Woods this Day 0.10.8
 In Obedience to an order of the Honourable County Court of Franklin to us, We have examined the accounts current between Joseph Hales administration & John Woods And find that the above ballance of Ten Shilling & eight pence still due the said Woods. It does not appear to your commissionaries what time the above debts came into the hands of the Guardian we have made no claim of interest in favour of the ward nor neither have we allowed compensation to the Guardian for his services. The above herein due to be all proven to us & likewise the charges acknowledged by Woods which we respectfully report. March 9th 1813
