Franklin County Ind

Inquest returned taken at Thomas Hepinstalls in the County aforesaid on the 10th day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred & twenty four before and returned by Henrick one of the Commissioners & the Justices of the peace in & for the County aforesaid upon the view of the body of Anna Mars then & there lying dead & upon the oath of Alexander Lefewick Peter Booth, John Lagenberg, Levi Ague John Ferguson Thomas Adams, Thomas Johnson, James Mraz, David Thompson Isaac Kraghead, Nathaniel Channing & Edmund Hatcher. Good & lawful men of the County aforesaid, who being sworn & charged to inquire on the part of the said Common Pleas, where where how & after what manner the said Anna Mars came to her death Do say upon their Oaths that the said Anna Mars came to her death by hanging herself with a Leather bridle by the neck in a cutting room adjoining a stable belonging to Thomas Hepinstall & that she must & did herself with her own hands tie the said bridle around a log suspended over the Room in which she was found hanging & with a Running noose of the other end of said bridle around her neck cheek & suffocate herself therewith, until dead, no other acts of violence were discovered in the said Body in which she was found as well the said Bernard H. Henrick JP as aforesaid as the Jurors aforesaid have to this Inquest put their seals on the day & place aforesaid & at the place aforesaid

From the best wisdom that the Jury can obtain the said Anna Mars possessed no property but her wearing apparel
