attempted to make his escape, & fell over a stump and afterwards run some distance before he was overtaken by said Wain. That there were no external marks of violence, and no person present except Capt. Wain. And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oath do say from the evidence before them that the said Harry came to his death by the fall above mentioned, and the excessive fatigue he underwent in attempting to make his escape, and by no other means. In Witness whereof as well the aforesaid Coronor as the Jurors aforesaid have to this inquisition put their hands and seals the 8th day of July 1824
