Paid by Robert Purity Jr as security for David Welles to Dickerson & Shawsbury together with In^r & costs about $64. This was settled in Robert Purity's life time & by himself. He never showed any disposition that any attempt sh^d be made to collect the same of Welles which makes it very doubtful with the ex^r whether there is any thing due, and if there is Mr. Welles' circumstances makes it very doubtful whether any thing can be made out of him. Mr. Welles shows an acct to the full amount of the sum p^d by S^r Purity for him, part of which account the ex^r has heard S^r Purity acknowledge was just.
