my Last Will and Testament Being Weak in Body but Sound of Memory Blessed be God that is to say First I give to my Beloved wife Catharine besides her thirds of my Estate if that should not be sufficient to maintain her as may Well maintain her all the time of her Life, she being not able to make out any thing to Live by Ist It is my Will that after all my Debts and Taxes are Paid that my Executors and Adm^r is to be sold to the highest bidder and the worth of it with all my moveables is equally to be Divided amongst my Children that one may have as much as the other except my eldest Son Christian who is to have five pounds Virginia Currency more than any the rest. As the Master Stricker my son in Law hath already more than his share will come to he is not to have any more. As the share that should come to my Daughter Barbara and her Husband Lewis Setzer shall be paid to their Children when they are of Lawful Age.

I do appoint Valentine Smith Leonard Balthas or Philip Hoffman to be Executors to cause all Truly to be done According to the true Intent of this my last Will, and if it might be done (if Lawfull) that Valentine Smith should take in this hand the Portion of my son Jacob (being too much given to him) and not give him any thing without the consent
