At a Court held for Frederick County the 3^d day of April 1803 This last will and testament of Anthony Pitman deceased was proved by the oath of David Henning and John Pitman and ordered to be recorded Philip Pitman an Executor therein named refused taking upon himself the burthen of the Execution thereof which is ordered to be certified And at a Court continued and held for County aforesaid the 5th day of April 1803 On the motion of Thomas Damm another Executor therein named who made oath according to law certificate is granted him for obtaining a Probate thereof in due form giving security whereupon together with his Securities entered into and acknowledged the conditions as the law directs By the Court Ja Math Oliver

In the name of God Amen I John Colvil of the County of Frederick and Commonwealth of Virginia being weak and frail in body but sound in mind and memory and belling to mind the mortality of my body and having that it is appointed for all men once to die I do make and ordain this my last will and testament in manner and form following To wit First I give and bequeath my soul into the hands of the Almighty God who gave it me and hope through the merits of our blessed Redeemer to be received in the mansion of eternal Happiness and my body to the earth to be buried in a decent and christian like manner at the discretion of my Executors hereinafter named and with regard to the worldly property where with it hath pleased God to bless me in this life I will and dispose of it in the following manner I will and direct that all my Just debts and funeral charges be paid out of what money may be found in my possession at the time of my decease or bonds that may be due to me I also will and direct that my farm on Long Marsh be divided by the stream of water which runs through the meadow and both parts thereof Valued by three honest and discreet land holders of the Neighborhood to be chosen by my Executors I will and beise that there may be reserved for my sister Penit during her

Natural life on the west side of the stream above mentioned one room with a fire place in the south end of the Mansion house also one stable between the house and the sun one small piece of meadow between the stable and Mr. Jones line one small lot of Pasture about the spring and joining the meadow also one field of land between the same and Mr. Barnes line with liberty to cut as much rail timber as will be necessary to repair her fences and a sufficient quantity of board wood for fuel to her fire she making no unnecessary waste or destruction and after her decease to rent to the said farm or whomsoever shall become the purchaser thereof that part lying upon the west side of the aforementioned stream of water still and being that there may be reserved for Robert Mottish his weavers Shop and small garden joining thereto with a back room in the Mansion house to lodge in for and during his natural life making no waste and destruction and after his decease to return to the farm or whomsoever may purchase the said farm or that part thereof where the said weavers Shop and garden lies I ~~there~~ will and do not that my Executors do offer to my brother Samuel Collet that part of my farm which lies west of the stream of water for said if he chooses to take it at the valuation and pay two full thirds of the money at four equal annual payments then and in that case the land to be his and his heirs forever but if he does not choose to comply with those terms the land to be sold at Public sale in the manner herein after directed and the said Samuel Collet to receive one full third part of the money it may be sold for and that part of my farm on the east side of the stream aforesaid still and about to be offered to John Adams and if he chooses to take it at the Valuation and pay the money at four equal annual payments deducting therefrom thirty three pounds then and in that case the land to be his and his heirs forever but if he does not choose to comply with those terms then the land to be sold at Public sale in the manner herein after directed and the said John Adams to receive thirty three Pounds out of the price thereof

I will and devise that all my personal property be sold at Public sale so soon as convenient after my death and the money or bonds to be distributed in the following manner First I give and bequeath the sum of one hundred and sixteen Dollars and sixty six $\frac{2}{3}$ cents for the support of the Gospel in the congregation of Cedar Creek that is to say the said sum of one hundred and sixteen Dollars Sixty six $\frac{2}{3}$ cents to be placed out on Interest upon good real or personal security by my Executor and the Interest thereof to be paid annually to the Presbytery Minister officiating at the said Cedar Creek meeting house and on the death of my sister Jennet the said sum of one hundred and sixteen Dollars Sixty six $\frac{2}{3}$ cents is to return to the mass of my Estate and to become a part of the Residue I will and bequeath to each of my Nephews and to each of their Sons related to me by consanguinity and named after me the sum of ten Pounds also to John McCauley the son of my niece Mary the sum of ten Pounds the names of those alluded to above are John Colock and John Marquis Nephews And the Nephews Sons John Colock son of Joseph John Marquis son of John Marquis Son John Marquis son of William John Marquis son of James and to my Nephew John Marquis I give an addition of five Pounds I give and bequeath to my trusty friend Robert Matlock the sum of fifty Dollars also to my sister in law Mary Colock the sum of ten Dollars and to my blind boy Jas Church I allow one year schooling and on condition that he live with my sister Jennet after my decease untill he arrives to the age of twenty one years and behave himself in a dutiful and obedient manner I then give and bequeath to him a new Saddle and bridle of the Value of one hundred Dollars also one hundred Pounds in money or bonds to be paid out of my Estate at the discretion of my Executor I will and devise that my Negro Girl named Milo aged about eight years and my negro boy named Griff aged about two years shall severally be emancipated when they arrive at the age of thirty years but in the mean time they shall be the property of my sister Jennet and in Case she should depart this life before the said Negroes arrive at the age aforesaid then my Executors or the survivor or survivors shall sell or hire them untill they attain the said age of thirty years and the price of the sale or hiring of said Negroes shall go into the residue of my Estate and I will and desire that if my said brother Sam^d Colwell and John Adams should not agree to take the lands at the appraisement as is herein before directed that then my said Executors the survivor or survivors of them shall proceed to sell the said land at Public sale within one year after my decease receiving such sum of money in hand as they may think proper provided it does not exceed one third of the purchase and the balance in three equal annual Payments And Lastly I will and bequeath all the rest residue and remainder of my Estate real personal and mixed to be divided into six equal parts in manner following that is to say to my brother Sam^d Colwell and his family one part to be divided by him amongst them To my sister Margaret Wacoll and her family one part to be by her divided amongst her children To my sister Martha Colwell one part excepting fifty Pounds I reserve for her Daughters Ann to come out of her part the rest to be divided at her election amongst her family To My sister Jennet one part I give and bequeath to my Executors one other sixth part in trust for my sister Ann Thompson to pay to her the Interest and such part of the principal as they or the survivor or survivors of them may think proper ~~reasonably~~ and in case she should die before the whole principal shall be exhausted then the remainder to her Daughters and their heirs The other sixth part I will and bequeath to the family of my sister Mary Marquis to be by my Executors or the survivor or survivors of them equally to be divided between William Marquis John Marquis Thomas Marquis Sarah Vance Ann Bowen Elizabeth McCauley and James Marquis and for the better understanding of my will and intention toward John Marquis Thomas Marquis Sarah Vance and Ann Bowen who if ~ living are at a considerable distance from me and it is not within my knowledge whether they are dead or alive therefore it is my intention that if all or either of them should be dead at the time of my decease that their heirs shall derive the same advantage under this my will that they themselves would were they living -

And I do appoint my trusty and well beloved friends, Land. M. Bailey John Adams Robert Mattock and William Marguis my Executors and I do hereby revoke and annul all former wills and testaments by me made and do acknowledge and confirm this my last will and testament In Witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this second day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ten

Signed Sealed published pronounced
