Whereas I Andrew Johnston of the County of Giles State of Va have my last will and Testament on the 3rd day of November 1838 and sign acknowledged the same and desired to make some slight alterations therein and being of sound mind and disposing memory desire that this shall be considered and received as a Codicil to my said will On my said will I devise to my son Andrew H. Johnston and James David Johnston my river tract of land and fifty acres of my Town tract of land now instead of the said fifty acres of my Town tract of land I do will & devise to my said sons Andrew & James David fifty five acres of my Town tract of land to be laid off as the said in my said will of the 3rd of November 1838 & whereas the said of David & Andrew Johnston executed the 21st of March 1837 a bond to Mary Henderson now deceased for the sum of One hundred and fifty dollars payable on demand upon which bond there are various credits & whereas the said Mary Henderson on the 3rd of November 1838 assigned the same to my beloved wife Jane Johnston and I do hereby declare that the said bond is not to be considered as any part of my estate but belongs to and is to be retained by my said wife Jane Johnston & my Executors in my said will of the 3rd of November 1838 are to set up no claim to the said bond or any part thereof as witness my hand and seal this 6th of November 1838
