

Will of.
Betsey Monroe

On this 11th day of February, one thousand, eight hundred, and eighty five, Betsey Monroe, being of sound mind, do make this my last will and testament.

I wish my son William Monroe to have one dollar I wish my three daughters to have all of my wearing apparel Indiana, Lucy Ann, and Maria Lewis, which they can divide between themselves. I wish my son Hezekiah and also three daughters to have all of my household and kitchen furniture.

I leave my land with home and everything there to my three daughters Indiana, Lucy Ann and Maria Lewis, to be equally divided between them.

As to the division of the household and kitchen furniture, I wish my daughter Maria Lewis to have my feather bed, and my son Hezekiah to have my bureau, and my daughter Indiana my press and the rest of said furniture to be equally divided between my son Hezekiah and my three daughters above mentioned.

On this 11th day of February 1885 I do hereunto by my hand and seal.
