

CHARLES BLACKNELL of Kingston Par., Gloucester CO.

14 Dec 1761/28 Jan 1762

To wife Mary Blacknell the use of my estate for life. (Will mentions but does not name "all my children" and "all my sons.")

Exors: Wife and friends John Page, the Rev. John Dixon and Thomas Booth.

Wit: William Lucas, Sarah Blacknell and Ben (X) Cradle.

NOTE: In "Gibbons v Nicholson":

Jury finds that Charles Blacknell died in 1761.... left a widow and children among whom was one named Ann [[Blacknell] who afterwards married in 1774 William Gibbons, father of the plaintiff. This William Gibbons died in 1776 or 1777 leaving a widow, Ann [Gibbons] and an only son, Charles Gibbons, the plaintiff. In 178_, Ann Gibbons married William Nicholson, the defendant. Ann Nicholson died in 1784 leaving one son by the said Nicholson. Mary Blacknell, mother of Ann Nicholson, died in 1785 without marrying a second husband.

A 14 Sep 1792 bond of William Nicholson and Robert Nicholson to Lawrence Gibbons, guardian of Charles Gibbons. Wit: Thomas Nicholson and Robert H. Waller York County Rec. Ctr. Box 8 1792 "Gibbons v Nicholson"