

66 Lewis I Charles C. Lewis of the County of Worcester do make and ordain this to be my last will and testament revoking all others heretofore made by me. After payment of all of my debts out of my property by my Executor hereinafter named in such mode as she may deem most ju-dicious I give and bequeath the rest of my property of every description to my wife Harriet C. Lewis And I hereby constitute and appoint her my Executor with the direction and request that the Court will permit her to qualify and act as such without giving security. I desire that my said wife will advise and consult with my friends Rich^d P. Jones Warner J. Jones O. B. Page & Geo. R. Page and S. Philip A. Talbot as to the man-agement of her property and affairs and request of them that they will give her their advice and counsel in relation thereto. In Witness Whereof I Charles C. Lewis have hereunto signed my hand and affixed my seal this 4th day of November Eighteen hundred and forty five.

Copy of the Last Will & Testament of
S. B. Medlicott

In the name of God amen. I Samuel B. Medlicott of Gloucester County State of Virginia being of sound and disposing mind memory and understanding though in feeble health do make publish and declare this to be my last will and testament hereby revoking and withdrawing past and present all former last wills and testaments and writings in the nature of last wills and testaments by me heretofore made. My will is first that my just debts shall be paid by my executors hereinafter named. It is my desire that my estate shall be kept together and worked as heretofore for the support of my family and the education of my children having it discretionary with my executors and my wife to sell only such property as they may deem best for the interests of my family to instance of any of the servants should at any time become refractory they may be sold and replaced or otherwise as my executors and wife may deem best so long as she remains my widow. Provided however that when either of my children marries or arrives at the age of twenty one years that they shall be entitled to receive one thousand dollars ($1000) from my estate in money or its equivalent and that all the crops of every description be sold to the best advantage and all interest collected and after deducting therefrom so much as may be necessary for the support of my family and the education of my children to put the balance at interest and so on from year to year and should my wife marry again she is authorized to take whatever property she
