Being aware of the uncertainty of life especially whilst engaged in war and in active service. I make this my last will and Testament. I leave to my beloved wife Elizabeth Scollay Page all my Estate after paying my just debts. I desire that all my property real and personal be sold at my death except such as my wife may desire to receive. That my debts be paid and that the residue of money arising from the sale of my property or such moneys as I may be possessed of at the time of my death be invested as my wife may desire for her support and that of my child Wally Scollay. I leave my wife my sole executrix and desire that if she should marry again she will settle upon my child before marriage one half of the Estate she may be possessed of. Witnesses my hand
