

Kemp

Gregory

I Gregory Kemp of the County of Gloucester and State of Virginia do make and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say - I devise and bequeath to my son Augustine Kemp in fee simple twenty five (25) acres of land in such proportions of wood and open land as he may elect, the said land to be laid off to him, beginning on Elijah Bridges line, and running in any direction he may choose, but not to approach in any direction nearer than within one hundred and fifty yards of my present dwelling house.

✓ The rest of my estate both real and personal I devise and bequeath to my present wife, so long as she remains my widow, for her life, and at her death to her children in equal proportions the surviving child or children should any die unmarried and without issue taking in equal proportions the dead Brother or Sisters portion - But should my wife survive all the children born to her by virtue of our marriage, then I desire at her death, or upon her marrying again leaving no children, all the property hereby bequeathed to her, and her children, to be equally divided between my son Augustine Kemp and my daughters of my first marriage, free from the marital rights of their husbands and for their sole and separate use - I nominate and appoint my friend Maynoham Kemp Executor of this my last will and testament. I give to my wife absolutely all the property which came to me through her, at the time of my marriage. In witness whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name, and affixed my seal, this the sixth day of January (1873) one thousand eight hundred and Seventy three
