

James Blake of the county of Gloucester and State of Virginia being of sound and disposing mind do make this to be my last will and testament, after paying all my just debts,

1st I give to my son James M. Blake, the piece of land containing eighty acres as described by plot and bounded by the land of James M. Blake, Tho. E. Lambuth and others also two young mules two cows and heifer and all the furniture consisting of bed & bedding, Beaureau, wardrobe, Sounge table Sounge my trunk and contents that may be in my room at my death, for his and his wife's kind attention to me while living -

2nd I give to my three grand children namely, Melvin, Clifton and Cisro Blake the piece of land containing forty acres adjoining the land of The Sheriff, Thomas Lawson, Swollen Blake & others,

3rd The balance of my personal property to be equally divided between my three boys, A. M. Blake, L. A. Blake and James M. Blake

4th I desire that the court will allow my son James M. Blake to qualify as my Executor of my estate without giving security.
As witness my hand this 28th day of November 1890

James Blake

W. P. Roane
J. E. Lambuth,

A County Court held for Gloucester County on Monday the 8th day of January 1891 an instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Blake has this day produced in Court for probate and was fully proven by the oaths of W. P. Roane and kind attention to me while living -

2^{ndly} I give to my three grand children namely. Melvin, Clifton and his wife Blake the piece of land containing forty acres adjoining the lands of the Sheriff, Thomas Lawson, Swollen Blake & others,

3^{rdly} The balance of my personal property to be equally divided between my three boys. A. H. Blake, L. A. Blake and James H. Blake

4th I desire that the court will allow my son James H. Blake to qualify as my Executor of my estate without giving security.

As witness my this 28th day of November 1890

James Blake

W. P. Reese
C. E. Lambuth,

At a County Court for the County of Winchester, Virginia, on Thursday the 8th day of January 1891 an instrument of writing purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Blake deceased this day produced in Court for probate and was fully proven by the oaths of W. P. Reese and C. E. Lambuth the two Subscribing Witnesses thereto and ordered to be recorded as the last Will and Testament of James Blake deceased and is recorded.

Teste
Saml B. Thompson C. C.