T

In the name of God Amen.

I John T Lewis of the County of Gloucester State of Virginia being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of this frail and transitory life, do therefore make and declare, publish and declare this to be my last will and Testament. That is to say, first, After all my lawfull debts are paid and discharged, the residue of my estate real and personal I give and bequeath and dispose of as follows.

To my beloved wife the farm on which I now reside, with all the appurtenances situated thereon to hold and enjoy during her natural life, and at her death I give and bequeath to my daughter Sarah the Homestead with all the buildings and appurtenances thereunto belonging with as much land attached as shall render it equal in value to the shares of my other two children Susan and Indew, the same to be used and enjoyed by her during her natural life, and at her death to go to her children and their heirs forever. In witness whereof I have herunto subscribed my name and affixed my seal this 16th day of March 1882
