I Samuel F. Roane of the County of Gloucester and State of Virginia do make this to be my last will and testament. Gloucester Co. Virginia Wills 1862-1896 www.virginiapioneers.net First, my will and desire is that the policy I now hold upon my life for twenty five hundred dollars, shall be equally divided, as soon after my death as possible, after paying all my just debts, between my wife Harriett E. Roane, and all of my children, giving her a child's portion.

2nd. I leave all of the ballance of my estate both real and personal, to be kept in common for the benefit of my wife Harriett E. Roane and mine children, until the youngest child arrives at the age of twenty one or marries provided my wife Harriett E. Roane remains my widow, but should she marry again, then she shall have a child's portion, equal with my children, in the division of my property, both real and personal, except a certain piece of land containing sixty seven acres left by Sedford Vaughan to his daughter Lucy C. Vaughan, who was the mother of my wife Harriett E. Roane. I request that
