

Martha E. Ninman. I, Martha E. Ninman, being of sound mind, but in feeble bodily health - do make this my last will and Testament in manner and form following, revoking all others - 1st I give to each of my children Walter B. Hall, Alexander O. Hall and Annie E. Hall one feather bed each, and To Clara M. Willis, one Cow, and desire my executor to sell the remainder of my personal property privately, and apply the proceeds to the payment of my funeral expenses and other just debts - 2nd I desire my real estate to be kept together by my executor until my youngest child Annie E. Hall becomes twenty one years of age, and then to be sold by him, and the proceeds equally divided between my three children named above and Clara M. Willis. The last named bequest to Clara M. Willis is in lieu of an amount of money due her by me as her guardian - I desire that my executor shall have the privilege of cutting any timber on the land from time to time until sold if needed for the support of himself and the other legates mentioned in this Will. I nominate and appoint my eldest son Walter B. Hall as my executor and request the Judge of the Court not to require him to give any security.
