I, ^{my} Washington V. Dunn of the County of Gloucester and State of Virginia, being of sound and disposing mind and memory revoking all former Wills do make and constitute this my last most solemn Will and Testament.

I desire first that all my just debts be paid off and discharged.

Secondly, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Susan B. Dunn, in fee simple two negro girls Ailey and Fanny and all children they may have at the time of my death, and I give my wife in the event of the girl Ailey dying before me another girl, Sarah in fee simple to supply the place of Ailey, and in the event of the girl Fanny dying before me I give to my wife a boy Fillmore in fee simple.

to supply the place of Fanny.

I also give to my beloved wife, in fee simple all the money which may be due from the sale of my land to Blaylock over the mill known as Whetings mill and all my silver spoons, sugar tongs, household and kitchen furniture, stock of sheep, neat cattle, hogs, horses, Carriages, carts, wagons and farming utensils of all kinds with only such exceptions as I shall hereafter indicate. I also give to my beloved wife for her use during her life only, my farm on which I reside, all my negroes not specifically disposed of, and my half of the mill now owned by me formerly known as Whetings.

At the death of my wife I give to my niece Mary E. Cox the mill property bequeathed to my wife for life, and the best bedstead, bed and bed clothing.

And finally at the death of my wife I give to my nephew George Cox the farm and negroes bequeathed to my wife for life, with the exception above mentioned, but charge him with the payment within eighteen months after the death of my wife, of one thousand dollars to my four nephews, William Cox, Thomas Cox, Washington Cox and Thushley Cox, that is to say two hundred and fifty dollars to each of them, which I give and bequeath to them.
