

William
Andrews

The last will and Testament of William Andrews of the County of Gloucester State of Virginia made this twenty fourth day of May in the year Eighteen hundred and sixty ~~seven~~ in the manner and form following That is to say 1st I desire That all of my just debts be paid out of my estate as soon after my decease as may be convenient and should I not leave a sufficiency in Cash or bonds and other immovables due me to pay my debts then for this purpose I wish my executor hereafter named to consult my wife as to what portion of my estate will best suit to make sale of and they exercise their discretion in making such sale. But should any portion of said Cash bonds and other immovables obligations be left after paying my debts then I give said portion to my beloved wife Emily to be enjoyed by her forever.

2nd Having heretofore given as much of my estate to my son William B. Andrews and to my daughters Lucy & Taylor, Almira F. Newcomb and Mary & West as I could with justice to my other children I hereby exclude my said son William B. Andrews and daughters Lucy & Taylor Almira F. Newcomb and Mary & West except that I give to my said son William B. Andrews my writing desk and bookcase to be enjoyed by him and his heirs forever. 3rd After the payment of my debts and disposal of the portion of the Cash - bonds and other immovables obligations as directed above in the first section of this my last will and Testament, and also the disposal of my desk and bookcase as before directed then in testimony of my sincere regard and affection for my dear wife Emily, I give to her all of the residue of my estate both real and personal for and during her natural life, provided she shall continue and die my widow, and at her death. Manage a confirmation of this will, then I wish all of the said residue of my estate both real and personal, to be divided into two equal parts and one of said parts (or half of all of the residue of my estate) I give to my son Andrew S. Andrews to be enjoyed by him and his heirs forever. The other half of the residue of my personal estate I give to my daughter Anna S. Willard to be enjoyed by her and her heirs forever.

obligations due me to pay my debts then for that purpose I wish my executor and administrators to consult my wife as to what portion of my estate will best suit to make sale of and they exercise their discretion in making such sale. But should any portion of said Cash bonds and other similar obligations be left after paying my debts then I give said portions to my beloved wife Emily to be enjoyed by her forever.

2nd Having heretofore given as much of my estate to my son William B. Andrews and to my daughters Lucy & Taylor, Almira F. Newcomb and Mary & West as I could with justice to my other children, I hereby exclude my said son William B. Andrews and daughters Lucy & Taylor Almira F. Newcomb and Mary & West except that I give to my said son William B. Andrews my writing desk and bookcase to be enjoyed by him and his heirs forever. 3rd After the payment of my debts and disposal of the portions of the Cash - bonds and other similar obligations as directed above in the first section of this my last will and Testament, and also the disposal of my desk and bookcase as before directed, then in testimony of my sincere regard and affection for my dear wife Emily, I give to her all of the residue of my estate both real and personal for and during her natural life, provided she shall continue and die my widow, and at her death manage a revocation of this will, then I wish all of the said residue of my estate both real and personal, to be divided into two equal parts and one of said parts (or half of all of the residue of my estate) I give to my son Andrew S. Andrews to be enjoyed by him and his heirs forever. The other half of the residue of my personal estate I give to my daughter Anna J. Willard to be enjoyed by her and her heirs forever.

The other part or half of my real estate I give and devise to my executor hereinafter named upon Trusts to hold the said half of my real estate and apply the same with all rents and other incomes accrued and to become payable thereon according to my intent devised and devise hereinafter expressed. That is to say I give devise and bequeath to my executor hereinafter named and his heirs forever, the said half of my real estate with all rents and other incomes accrued and to become payable Thence upon Trust unto -hers for the sole and separate use and benefit of my daughter Anna J. Willard during her natural life without the power of participation or alienation, the said half of my real estate estate and all rents accrued and to become payable Thence not to be liable to the debts contracts engagements or claims of any husband she may have.

 But that my executor shall permit my said daughter Anna J. Willard to use and occupy the said half of my real estate and take the issues and profits thereof for her own use and purposes so long as she shall remain unmarried.
 And from and immediately after her intermarriage my executor and shall hold the same for her sole and separate use and purposes and use other and apply the rents and other incomes accrued and to become payable Thence to her maintenance and support during her natural life and at her death I devise and bequeath the said half of my real estate and all accumulations of profits thereof unto to her children, but should she die without leaving any child or the descendant of any child Thence I devise and bequeath the same to such person or persons as she may by her last will and testament or an instrument of writing in the nature of a last will and testament notwithstanding her contrary devise the same.
 And the event of her dying without such will or instrument of writing I hereby devise and bequeath the same to such of my children and grandchildren as may survive her, they respectively taking such portions thereof, as they would be entitled to the same if I were to die intestate.

4th If at any time after my wife's death my executor and daughter Anna J. Willard shall believe that her interest would be benefited by the sale of the said half of my real estate heretofore devised in trust for the benefit of my said daughter then I hereby direct my executor hereafter named and the survivors of him to sell publicly or privately as he may elect to the best advantage, the said

said half of my real estate and as devised in trust for the benefit of my said daughter then I hereby direct my executor hereafter named and the survivors of him to sell publicly or privately as he may elect to the best advantage, the said half of my real estate and upon the payment of the whole of the purchase money to convey legal title to the same, and the purchase money arising from said sale, be invested in any way deemed best by my executor, and said purchase money with all interest dividends accrued and to be come payable thereon be applied by my executor according to my intent design and desire herein before expressed. That is to say to be applied and transferred precisely as the land and unto thereof would have been, had the same not been sold unless it shall become necessary to use a part of the principal of said sale for the maintenance and support of my said daughter Anna J. Willard while unmarried and if found to be so necessary then I direct so much of the principal of said sale to be applied by my executor to her support and maintenance while unmarried, the amount to be fixed by the Court, having jurisdiction of the same.

5th. Having previously given by deed a negro girl named Margaretta Smith to my son Andrew S. Andrews and daughter Anna J. Willard and as said negro has long since been sold, it is my wish and desire that my said son shall not claim any portion of said sale of her my said daughter, and if he shall receive any portion of said sale of her then I will and direct that so much as he shall receive of said sale be deducted from the part of my estate given him in the third section of this my last will and testament and the amount there deducted to be given to my said daughter and enjoyed by her forever.

6th I do hereby constitute and appoint my friend & Tafford J. Locke executor of this my last will and testament, and do request and wish the Court not to require of him any security in qualifying in my estate or as acting in the
