In obedience of an Order of the Warrshippfull Court of Goodland

 Executor of the estate of W^m Rountree dec^d and it doth appear to us that there is a Ballance due from the said executor to the said Estate of one hundred and eight pounds nine Shillings and nine pence farthing It also appears there is Bonds in suit of what dignity we know not but Perhaps to the amount of sixty or seventy pounds that was due W^m Rountree before his dec^d No Legal Vouchers appearing to us we have Rested our selves Satisfied by the executor making affidavit to any Part of the acct that appeared doubtful - It appears also that the Executor has in ^{his} hands bonds to the amo^t of Seventy four pounds thirteen Shilling and Sevenpence which has been due some considerable time and owing to his indulgence it is Probable that some of them cannot or be recovered We have therefore thought proper to charge the said bonds to the executor Given from under our hands this 19th Day of

In Obedience to an order of Gooch's Court, ^{hereby annexed} the Subscribers have View'd the Bridge built over the great Ogee by Mr Tho Eldredge and find it is done in a Workman like manner We likewise find it sixty six feet long which extends from bank to bank or within the smallest fraction the Weight on the mud sills appears to be Sufficient in our Opinion four sleepers which have been objected to heretofore We find four Inches by twelve which cannot affect the bridge for had the whole sleepers been of the same size Wealey thinks it would have Answer'd every purpose Given under ^{our} hands 25th day of Aug^r 1788
