In the name of God amen I Samuel Powell being sick in body, but in my perfect senses and sound memory do make this my last will and testament. first I bequeath my soul to god that gave it, and my body to be buried in a christian like manner at the discretion of my executors. As touching such estate as it hath been please god to bless me with in this life after my just debts being first paid I dispose of in manner following viz. — I do first leave one hundred acres of land the tract adjoining James Powell to be sold to pay my debts.

I do give the land I now live on to my two sons John & Foster equally to be divided betwixt them, but their mother to possess the plantation her life time.

I do give my daughter Elizabeth one negro girl named Charity forever.

I do give my daughter Moley one negro girl named Peg for ever.

I do leave the land adjoining John Paynes, whereon Daniel Powers now lives I leave to Pleasant Albison for ever.

I leave to my beloved wife Sarah all the rest of my negroes and household furniture and stocks of all kinds, and the plantation I now live on, and all the rest of my estate of every kind, during her natural life, & after her decease to be equally divided amongst my children, as well Susanah Mole not before mentioned equally with the rest left to have her equal part of what is left to her mother during life.

I appoint my beloved wife Sarah my son John and Simon Gentry executors to this my last will and testament July the 23 day 1780.
