This Indenture made this 26th day of November in the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety nine between Richard Littlepage of the county of Hanover of the one part, and Thomas Royster and William Miller of the county of Goochland of the other part witnesseth that whereas the said Richard Littlepage is justly indebted to John Curd of Goochland county in the sum of two hundred and sixty seven pounds current money of Virginia (it being for the purchase of a stud horse called Whisttjacket this day delivered the said Rich^d Littlepage) which said sum the said Richard Littlepage is to pay to the said John Curd on or before the first day of September in the year one thousand eight hundred, the payment of which said sum it is the desire of the said Richard Littlepage effectually to secure to the said John Curd when it becomes due and the meaning and intention of these presents are for that express purpose.

This indenture therefore further witnesseth that the said Richard Littlepage for and in consideration of the premises before mentioned, and also one dollar to him in hand paid by the said Thomas Royter and William Miller at the signing and delivery of these presents, the receipt of which is hereby acknowledged, the said Richard Littlepage has granted, bargained sold and delivered and by these presents does grant, bargain sell and deliver unto the said Thomas Royter and William Miller, and to their heirs and assigns forever the following property to wit, one stud horse called Whistlejacket, this day purchased of the above named John Curd, one stud horse called Franklin in the possession of the said Richard Littlepage, and a negro woman named Tener now in the possession of David Wade in Botetown. To have and to hold the before mentioned property unto the said Thomas Royter and William Miller their heirs and assigns forever In trust nevertheless and upon these express conditions, that in case default shall be made by the said Richard Littlepage his heirs executors or assigns in the payment of the aforesaid sum of money, when the same becomes due together with interest thereon from the time it becomes due, then it shall be lawful for the said Thomas Royter and William Miller or either of them, or either of their heirs executors or assigns at the request of the said John Curd his heirs executors or assigns to sell at public sale for cash at Goochland courthouse having previously given twenty days notice of such sale in one of the Richmond newspapers, the before mentioned property, or so much thereof as shall be needful for the satisfaction of the aforesaid sum of two hundred and sixty seven pounds with interest and the costs of recording, and carrying into effect this indenture, and pay and satisfy unto the said John Curd his said debt, out of the produce of the said sale, as far as the same will extend, and return to the said Richard Littlepage his heirs executors or assigns the residue (if any there shall be) of all such monies as shall arise from the said sale of the properties aforesaid, the said John Curd having first received the aforesaid debt, interest and whatever costs he shall have expended in carrying this indenture into effect, and with respect to all the property remaining unsold after the payment of the said debt with interest and costs, this indenture shall cease and be void, and the said

Richard Littlepage for himself and his heirs doth covenant promise and agree to and with the said Thomas Royster and William Miller their heirs or assigns, that in case of any such sale as aforesaid, he will render and deliver actual possession of the aforesaid property to any purchaser or purchasers thereof, and that he will warrant and forever defend the title of the said property to the said Thomas & William their heirs or assigns forever, and that a deed or bill of sale shall be executed to the purchasers in fee simple by the said Thomas Royster & William Miller for the property aforesaid, which shall be valid to all intents and purposes.
